DYLAN NIRVANA & THE BAD FLOWERS

IT'S ALREADY

A guitarist's revenge on the status quo. Dylan Nirvana with his band The Bad Flowers, has performed at Mercury Lounge and CBGB's. His record Anne Boleyn was written up in the New Yorker and Village Voice - "Morrissey meets Motörhead". The classical guitarist gone punk has been a unique part of the New York City music scene.

THE FUTURE

The single This is the Greatest Day of my Life is not yet released. Dylan Nirvana is working with Billy Ficca from the epic band Television, and producer Jim Wirt (Fiona Apple) on the fun & fiery new record Revolutionary Road. It features some unusually candid songwriting and music that is definitely a new take on Indie Punk and Glam Rock. It is also not yet released.

Includes Rebound Girl, Solitudes and You're F'ing Wrong
